WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY

Hello Friends,

First, we would like to thank you for your continued support of the rich artistic community that we have here in Wichita. As a part of that community, Wichita State University's School of Performing Arts is known for its quality productions, as well as the level of discipline and professionalism that is present in each facet of the educational process. In other words, we put on a good show - but we also know what it takes to put that show together! This year is no exception.

To open our Spring Season, we would like to invite you to our production of:

*For colored girls who have considered suicide/when the rainbow is enuf

by Ntozake Shange

History Made: Second Annual Avoice Heritage Celebration

CBCF Friends and Supporters,

On February 9th, the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation hosted the Second Annual Avoice Heritage Celebration (visit Avoice online at www.avoiceonline.org), an event honoring those who have worked to preserve and champion African-American legislative history.

As we pass the halfway point of Black History Month, CBCF lauds the efforts of two individuals and one company who work to celebrate black history every month:

- Distinguished Individual Avoice Heritage Awardee:
Debra Newman Ham, Ph.D.
- CBC Member Preservation Avoice Heritage Awardee:
Ronald V. Dellums
- Distinguished Corporation Avoice Heritage Awardee:
The Coca-Cola Company

CBCF would like to thank all of our friends and supporters who attended, including Boehringer Ingelheim Pharmaceuticals, Inc., our premier sponsor; Chevron, our opening reception sponsor as well as the many members of the 112th Congress. Best,

The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, Inc.

The American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) is offering a scholarship to women age 40 and above who want to explore educational opportunities but may not be able to afford them. For many women this means life may really begin at 40 thanks to the AARP'S Women's Scholarship Program which provides funds for women who seek additional educational opportunities, new job skill and/or training.

To qualify for educational assistance women must be 40+ by March 31, 2011 and be able to demonstrate financial need, and be enrolled in an accredited school or technical program within 6 months of the scholarship award date.
